Fine Tuning Fund
Members, we did it! Your donations and hard work built an Art Gallery. Everyone who has seen it is praising our accomplishment.

Now, to use it to its max, we need to fine tune it. The regular operating expenses have been budgeted for the year and will come out of the general fund. So, what is needed to fine tune? More track lights @ approx. $40 ea., and boxes/pedestals @ $34 ea in material for the gallery and 8’ folding leg tables @ $20 ea, metal folding chairs @ $15 ea, and Ottlite floor lamps @ $40 ea for workshops and meetings.

HAA is starting a “Fine Tuning Fund”. Can you donate to the fund? If so, mark your check for Fine Tuning Fund. Mail your check to HAA, Treasurer, 37 N. Main Street, Suite 104, Bel Air, MD 21014. From the Gallery

Saturday, November 12th was a beautiful autumn day. The Grand Opening reception at our splendid new gallery was indeed grand. The mayor of Bel Air was on hand to lead the ribbon-cutting ceremony, assisted by the indispensable Pattie Stonesifer. President Pam Burton gave the opening remarks, informing the assembled crowd of how the relocation effort was accomplished entirely by volunteers, and specifically named those members whose labors were particularly noteworthy.

We welcomed over one hundred visitors, including town dignitaries, representatives of local businesses, private citizens and many HAA members. Our heads were spinning from all the positive comments and expressions of obvious appreciation for this jewel of a gallery. Nancy Lloyd, Gallery Coordinator

Our First Day at the New Gallery

In case you missed Mindi Scott's email describing our first day at the new gallery, it’s attached. We also sent a copy to our postal mail members.

HAA Member Handbook Changes

On November 1, 2016, Patricia Stonesifer, our Membership Chairperson, issued revised pages 17 through 20 of our HAA Member Handbook re Guidelines for Sitters for the new gallery. Enclosed are the pages. They will also be available on the Gallery page of our website. GuidelinesGallerySitters104.pdf

Mail Delivery to the Gallery

Mail will be delivered to Suite 104 on Thu, Fri, and Sat at about 1:30 pm. Upon receipt, the sitters should add the mail to the folder marked “secretary” in the drawer labeled “mail” in the filing cabinet below the printer in the point-of-sale area. Nancy Lloyd, HAA Secretary, will distribute the mail from the “secretary” folder.

Unframed Rack Items

Unframed paintings, prints, etc. have their own Entry Form which can be found in the box on the Gallery page of our website. There is also an explanatory form. Both forms are also attached and at the gallery. Racks-EntryForm-UnframedArt.pdf Racks-Info-UnframedArt.pdf

Art Books at the Gallery

While moving to the new gallery, our art books were inventoried. The ones we are keeping can be checked out by members. They are on the bookshelf in the multipurpose room and there is a sign-out sheet for them. The books we are not keeping are stacked at the back of the multipurpose room and they are free to members - a donation would be appreciated.

Sign Up Guide - Sign Up Genius

Since we have more members wanting to show their artwork at our new gallery, Jackie Swartz has prepared a Guide for filling out the online Sign Up Genius calendar we use for our gallery shows. If you have questions, contact Jackie. There will be a copy of this form in the box on our Gallery page of our website. See attached SignUpGuide-SignUpGenius.pdf

Bel Air Downtown Alliance - Girls Night Out

Did you notice that we’re open till 8 pm on Dec 15? Well, that’s because Downtown Alliance’s Girls Night Out is having their last event for the year. Their “Wine Down” event on that evening will be held at our gallery between 5 and 6 pm where they will serve wine and light edibles. They’ll also provide music. We will be the hosts. This is a great opportunity for visitors to learn about HAA and all that we offer. from Alex Kopp

Susan G. Komen Cancer Fundraiser

Many of our visitors donated to our Cancer Fundraiser during the month of October. We appreciate their effort to help this worthy cause.

HAA Sandwich Board

HAA will be getting a “sandwich board” to advertise our gallery; it will be placed in Frederick Ward Park next to the Armory.

NEW...Working on your art project when sitting:

Please do NOT work behind the point-of-sale area. Reserve this space for wrapping purchases and gallery business. You may put a small folding leg table or an easel from the Multi-Purpose Room in front of the windows. Please cover the floor area around you with a drop cloth. Keep the cloth within the confines of your work area so it is not a hazard to our guests. Working in this area will give our visitors an opportunity to watch an artist at work and give you more freedom of movement. The Gallery Committee

(This info will be added to website Gallery page.)
